

Crime Safest Business, Says Lowden Report

Police and Court Inefficiency Have Combined to Make It So—Rural Police Forces Worthless and State Constabulary System Is Recommended as Substitute.

New York, Feb. 28 (AP)—Inefficiency of the police and the courts is planned for this country's notorious crime record—in a report from a subcommittee to the national crime commission, which recommends as one solution that police departments be taken out of politics.

The report summarizes a survey made by the committee, of which Frank O. Lowden, former governor of Illinois, is chairman, and was written by Dr. Louis N. Robinson of Swarthmore, Pa., noted criminologist, and executive secretary of the committee.

Characterizing crime as appearing to be "the safest business in which one could engage," the report says that in Buffalo but three per cent of arrests are made proportioned to the robbery which have occurred, the lowest record of the nine cities from which statistics were obtained. This is compared to 80 per cent in England. Schenectady, the report said, was not much better, with a percentage of 16, and St. Louis 11 per cent.

"Robbery in Buffalo must be a particularly lucrative calling," Dr. Robinson said. "The number who are finally convicted is necessarily so small that the luckless individual who is occasionally caught and convicted must attribute his misfortune to an act of God, as he would in case of disastrous storm, shipwreck or earthquake."

In cases of manslaughter and murder only one of the nine cities showed a better record of arrests than England where the percentage is 82. Cleveland has a score of 83 per cent, the report says, but contrasted to that are St. Louis where the percentage is only 16, Kansas City 36 per cent, and Baltimore 68 per cent.

The police of small towns and rural areas, made accessible to city criminals by the automobile and good roads, is severely condemned by the report. The rural police organization is "but a decayed and antiquated survival of ancient systems which England had at different periods of its early history," it says.

As a solution for this increasing crime problem of the rural community, the committee suggests an adoption of the state constabulary idea. Instead of a separately organized body operating independently it should be a staff charged with the development and coordination of local police forces, the report says.

"Take it out of politics," says the report in suggesting a remedy for the problem of properly policing the cities, declaring that "the character and tone of our police forces but mirror the character and tone of city administrations in general."

LINDBERGH FINDS NO SUCH THING AS SECLUSION
New York, Feb. 28 (AP)—Colonel Charles A. Lindbergh has about decided that there is no such thing as seclusion. Lindbergh came here with a few friends Saturday for a vacation in the belief that he could walk the streets and mingle in the crowds of a great city without being recognized.

He discovered, however, that the only way he could avoid general and immediate recognition was to avoid being seen at all. Yesterday he ventured into a store on 45th street just off Fifth avenue, was recognized, and had to wait in the shop for an hour until police came to disperse the crowds and escort him to his car.

New Bomb Threat Made in Chicago

Cuneo Receives Note From "Gangland" Saying They Are Going to Get Him—Tenants Ordered Not to Talk.

Chicago, Feb. 28 (AP)—New bomb threats were revealed today simultaneously with the offering for sale by several Chicago companies of insurance against loss from bomb outrages.

Four of the six families living in the same apartment building occupied by Lawrence Cuneo, brother-in-law and Secretary of State's Attorney Crowe, showed police the following neat typewritten warnings:

"We are going to get Larry Cuneo. If we have to blow the whole building to splinters. You had better take a vacation for three or four weeks. Don't talk about this note or the bombing to friends or the police. We have your wires tapped and if you do, you'll get another bomb."

"GANGLAND."
A bomb thrown into the hallway and intended, police believed, for Cuneo recently damaged the building. It was one of a series of bombings aimed at city officials or persons connected politically with the administration of Mayor Thompson and the Thompson-Crowe Republican organization.

Police were told that one of the tenants who received a warning disregarded the injunction against talking about it, and discussed it over the telephone with a neighbor. She had hardly hung up, she said, when her phone rang and a man's voice told her to "cut it out."

Police Capture Youthful Thieves

They Had Broken Into Sam Amen's Store on Broadway, Stealing Candy, Cigars and Cakes—Also Stole From Parked Cars.

This morning about 2 o'clock Officer Reardon saw two small boys coming from behind the Memorial Building of the American Legion on West O'Reilly street and took them to police headquarters, where they were closely questioned. They confessed to breaking into the store of Sam Amen at 352 Broadway about 11 o'clock Monday night. They said they had hidden their plunder in the rear of the Memorial Building, where it was later found and taken to police headquarters. They had also stolen six packs of cigarettes from a parked car on Broadway and a key from a parked Buick on Hoffman street, which was also recovered. The boys are 11 and 10 years old respectively. Their parents were notified and called at police headquarters, where the boys were paroled in their custody to appear in children's court before Judge Fowler later.

Search Made for Missing Fliers

Washington, Feb. 28 (AP)—Twenty-three airplanes and two army blimps were ordered out today to search the lower Chesapeake Bay area for the three aviators of the carrier Lexington, who have been missing since they took off from Norfolk naval air station for Annapolis yesterday morning.

LOS ANGELES LEAVES FOR GUANACAYABO BAY

France Field, Canal Zone, Feb. 28 (AP)—The dirigible Los Angeles, which arrived here last night from the United States, took off at 10:15 today for Guanacayabo Bay, Cuba, where the U. S. Patrol is awaiting her.

The dirigible, which yesterday completed the second longest non-stop flight in her history, took off from the improvised "stump" mast here a few minutes after 10 o'clock and started safely on her return flight to the United States which will be broken by a stop in Cuba.

JURY FIXES $25,000 AS PRICE FOR ONE KISS
Washington, Feb. 28 (AP)—Twenty-five hundred dollars for a kiss! That was the price fixed by a circuit court jury here when it returned a verdict for damages against Vasile I. Chebithes, Washington attorney. The plaintiff was Mrs. Madeline McNamee Price, wife of a Jacksonville, Fla., real estate broker, and formerly Chebithes's secretary. She charged that the attorney forcibly kissed her at a Chicago hotel in 1925. After Mrs. Price filed her suit, Chebithes sued her for $50,000 for alleged libel in connection with letters about the kissing episode she is said to have written officials of a Greek organization of which Chebithes was president. This suit is now pending.

Los Angeles Trip Ended Safely

France Field, C. Z., Feb. 28 (AP)—With the second longest non-stop flight in her history behind her, the dirigible Los Angeles was moored to an improvised mast here today ready for an early start on her return flight to the United States. It was planned to anchor the dirigible tonight to the U. S. S. Potaka, now at Guanacayabo Bay, Cuba, and refuel. Early tomorrow the Los Angeles will cast off from Potaka and head for her home port, Lakehurst, N. J.

Leaving Lakehurst at 6:15 a. m. Sunday, the dirigible flew over New York and then headed for Panama and moored at France Field at 10:49 last night, after flying 2,265 miles in 49 hours.

A tropical moon offered visibility as the Los Angeles approached Colon over the Caribbean sea. The craft circled the city twice before coming down. A crowd of nearly 5,000 that gathered at the field watched with eagerness every movement of the great aircraft to make a non-stop flight between the United States and the isthmus. Only once has the Los Angeles made a longer journey and that was when she was down to the United States from Germany.

The dirigible had no trouble in landing in the spanking northerly trade wind. A crew of 600 sailors was present to assist in mooring the ship to the sixty foot temporary mast which was constructed in the United States under the supervision of Lieutenant Commander E. C. Rosendahl. When the Los Angeles was about 30 feet from the ground mooring lines were tossed overboard and the ship dragged to within a few feet of the earth. It was then dragged for 50 yards to the mast and lashed fast.

Lieutenant Commander Rosendahl said that the entire flight was made with great ease. Rough weather was encountered only once although the craft passed through every kind of weather, including snow, sleet, rain and wind.

"The trip," he said, "demonstrates the feasibility of long flights for the dirigible and we experienced no trouble in making a non-stop flight from New York to Panama."

The Los Angeles used about two-thirds of its fuel supply on the journey, consuming 20,000 pounds. The cruising altitude was generally between 1,600 and 1,500 feet with a maximum of 2,000 feet. It was necessary to nose the dirigible up over the clouds several times.

GEDZIUM PROTESTS INNOCENCE TO THE END

Boston, Feb. 28 (AP)—A few minutes after he had signed a statement protesting his innocence of the murder in 1925 of Edward C. Ross, Cambridge bank messenger, Jerry Gedzium, 21, was put to death in the electric chair at the Charlestown state prison early this morning.

He entered the death chamber accompanied by the Rev. Fr. M. J. Murphy, chaplain of the prison, and was repeating a prayer as the current was turned on.

Counsel for the condemned man sought until late yesterday to have Governor Fuller intervene but the executive declined on the grounds that he saw no reason to interfere.

Gedzium's trial aroused considerable interest because it involved his wife and his sister. Mrs. Gedzium was indicted as an accessory before and after the murder, conviction for which could have carried the death penalty. The prosecution, however, not pressed both for insufficient evidence.

The condemned man's sister, Genevieve, 19, is now serving a sentence of eight years in the women's reformatory at Sherborn for attempting to carry a loaded pistol to her brother in his cell at the East Cambridge jail. The weapon was concealed in a roasted chicken.

Smith Lays Office Building Cornerstone

And At the Same Time Shows Himself to Be a Capable Moving Picture Director—Governor's Speech Very Brief.

Albany, N. Y., Feb. 28 (AP)—Surrounded by the heads of practically every department in the state government, Governor Smith today laid the cornerstone of the 32 story state office building being erected at the rear of the Capitol.

"This building," said the Governor in a brief address, "will be fitting to the dignity and majesty of this great state. It will lend color to a setting that will impress visitors to Albany that the state of New York is indeed the Empire State. It will tend to show the power of New York in the union of states."

Taking up the silver trowel, the Governor then turned to the huge block of white stone suspended in a setting of bare steel frame work and covered by flags.

Two workmen brought in pails of mortar, and the Governor, scooping up a liberal supply on the polished implement, spread it over the base of the stone.

"Sills ready?" he said to a half dozen cameramen who had squeezed in among the throng of state officers. "Yip," they replied, and the Governor smoothed out the mortar.

"Movies!" he said, and the motion picture men started to grind away, while he took up another trowel full of mortar and then watched the spout lowered into place.

Introduced by Speaker Joseph A. McGinnies of the Assembly, representing the Republican majority in the Legislature, the Governor first qualified as a member of the International Union of Journeymen Bricklayers and Masons by receiving a union card from a member of the Albany local.

"O. K. delegate," he called as he took his place at the speakers' table and the representative of the union stepped forward. It was the Governor's second induction into a labor union. A year ago, when he operated the steam shovel which scooped up the first shovelful of earth for the foundation of the building, he received a membership card from the International Union of Steam and Operating Engineers.

MAIL TRAIN ROBBERY CASE STILL FULL OF MYSTERY

Chicago, Feb. 28 (AP)—Federal officers were finding the $133,000 Evergreen Park mail train robbery of Saturday more of a mystery today than they had anticipated. City police, in turning over prisoners, evidence and recovered money, had indicated they believed the case had been solved, but postal inspectors said there remained much to be done before a strong case is ready.

Police indicated that two men under arrest had confessed, but the federal officers said no confession had been made to them, and that the prisoners had failed to shed any light on the case.

The likelihood that at least two of the 16 being held would be formally charged with participation in the robbery was indicated by officers representing the post office and district attorney's office, Charles (Limpy) Cleaver and William Donovan, the men against whom the federal agents profess to have the best cases.

THREATS AND POISONS IN REBECCA'S LETTERS. THEY SAY

New York, Feb. 28 (AP)—Rebecca Rosenberg, 24 years old, an accountant, was held in $5,000 bail today accused of sending threatening letters, some of them containing poisonous powder, to government officials, army officers and city judges.

Authorities also charged her with suspicion of forgery when her brother-in-law, Warren Federn, whose name was signed to some of the letters, told police he had not written them.

The letters, authorities said, complained that a brother of the writer had been arrested and was being prosecuted unjustly, and demanded action in his behalf.

Dry Leaders Rally in Defense

Gather in Washington to Plan to Force a Showdown in the National Convention of Both Parties Next Summer.

Washington, Feb. 28 (AP)—Rallying to the support of prohibition, dry leaders from all sections of the country assembled here today to lay plans for a showdown on the question with both the Republican and Democratic parties.

At a one day conference they proposed to map out a campaign for insertion of clear cut prohibition planks in the two political platforms and for the nomination of men for president and vice president known to be dry at heart.

The penalty for ignoring this demand, those in charge of the meeting let it be known, would be an appeal to friends of prohibition activity to oppose the non-complying party's nominees at the polls in November.

On the program for addresses at business sessions during the day and at a banquet tonight were listed men and women of the Protestant, Catholic and Jewish faiths, laymen as well as clergymen.

A committee was given the assignment of drawing up a set of resolutions, putting down in black and white what is to be demanded of the publican and Democratic political chieftains, and it was planned also to designate a group to press the campaign and present the demands at the Kansas City and Houston conventions.

At Kansas City, the group will have the active support of Senator Borah, Idaho, who has declared he will carry the fight for a dry law enforcement plank in the Republican platform to the convention.

The conference resolutions will be formally presented by Bishop James Cannon, Jr., of the Methodist Episcopal Church, South, at tonight's dinner, at which Bishop William F. McDowell, of the Methodist Episcopal Church, will preside.

Dr. Daniel A. Poling, president of the World Christian Endeavor Union, was the presiding officer for the day sessions. His prepared keynote address declared that, short of anarchy, prohibition cannot be changed in any other way than by the orderly processes in which it was secured. Morally, he contended, prohibition is "the greatest social adventure in history."

WRECKAGE FROM BROOKS PLANE IS WASHED ASHORE

Melbourne, Fla., Feb. 28 (AP)—Cushions and a thermos bottle washed up during the night on the shore at a point about eight miles north of Sebastian Inlet were identified as the property of Harry Brooks, whose plane nose dived into the ocean off here Saturday.

These articles, however, were of little assistance to searching parties seeking Brooks's body except to indicate the tides have swept all evidences of the body steadily southward.

High north to northwest winds along this stretch of coast today hampered activities of those looking for the body of Brooks.

Land and sea planes, six in all, patrolled the region around Indian river inlet, where it was believed the body might have been carried by the tides. The consensus was, however, that the body had been swept south of this point.

CRIME COMMISSION DRIVE AGAINST JOHN SHARKS.

Albany, Feb. 28 (AP)—The Legislature had before it today two bills marking the beginning of the state crime commission's drive against loan sharks. Both of the measures, which were slated for speedy passage, were introduced after a conference between Attorney General Albert Ottolinger and Senator Charles H. Baumes, chairman of the commission. They were designed to provide for action against salary lenders, said to be operating with considerable activity at railroad and industrial centers, and for authorization of certain corporations to loan money to small borrowers without imposition of any fees or the exacting of discount rates or interest.

Historic Badge For Firemen

Judge Clearwater Suggests the First Seal of the Village of Kingston, a Golden Eagle With Palm and Sunburst.

The following is a copy of Judge Clearwater's letter to Nelson W. Snyder, chairman of the Committee on Badges for the coming Firemen's Convention, which aside from its artistic suggestion is of the greatest historical interest to the firemen of Kingston. Solomon Brown, to whom the judge refers, for many years was the popular proprietor of the old Kingston Hotel on Crown street, from which at that time the four-hour stages for Delhi and Ellenville left and at which daily they arrived. Mr. Brown subsequently became chief of the fire department of Kingston, and President of the village board of trustees. He was a highly regarded and most influential citizen.

Feb. 22nd, 1928.

To Nelson W. Snyder, Esq., Municipal Building, Kingston, New York.

My dear Mr. Snyder: I have given a good deal of thought to your request that I suggest a badge for the coming Firemen's Convention. I think an appropriate and historic device would be the first seal of the Village of Kingston adopted in 1807, a golden eagle, with outstretched wings, holding a palm branch in its talons, standing in front of a golden sunburst. I would suggest that this device upon a blue silk badge of appropriate length, not only would be desirable but artistic.

Among my treasures is the certificate of the Trustees of the Village of Kingston issued to Solomon Brown as the foreman of Hook & Ladder Company, No. 1, on the 3rd day of September, 1836, which bears this device. I shall be glad to show you this certificate at any time you may drop in my office.

Very truly yours,
A. T. CLEARWATER.

Brewery Case Again Adjourned

A second adjournment was taken this morning before United States Commissioner A. C. Connelly in the matter of the cases growing out of the raid at the Hauck Brewery on Abel and Wurts streets on January 13. The cases set down for a hearing on February 15 were adjourned at that time at the request of the United States attorney until 10 o'clock today when a further adjournment of two weeks was requested by the United States attorney and the adjournment granted. The men who were found at work in the brewery on the day of the raid are under bail for appearance on the adjourned date. A. J. Cook appeared for the defendants.

The brewery is still closed and in charge of Federal agents. The adjourned hearing will be on March 13 at 10 o'clock before Commissioner Connelly at his offices in the Cord's building on Wall street.

Only One Dog Caught Monday

GOLDEN HORN FROZES FOR FIRST IN 25 YEARS.

Constantinople, Feb. 28 (AP)—With reports of various calamities in Anatolia pouring in here, Constantinople today was under snow for the seventh consecutive day with the temperature at eight below zero centigrade. The Golden Horn froze last night for the first time in 25 years.

Smyrna experienced a violent earthquake of short duration, which did no damage, in the midst of a heavy blizzard yesterday morning. At Angora a temperature of seventeen below zero was registered.

BRITISH FLEETS COMPLETE 10,000 OF 25,000 MILES

Singapore, Straits Settlement, Feb. 28 (AP)—Four British Air Force flying boats, which are on an "empire cruise" of 25,000 miles, arrived at the air base at Port Swettenham today, completing the first 10,000 miles of their long flight without mishap. The fliers and their planes will continue to Australia in May. A complete circuit of Australia is planned followed by a hop to Hong Kong and then a flight back to Singapore where the fleet probably will be stationed permanently.

Killed by Overturned Crane.

Glens Falls, N. Y., Feb. 28 (AP)—Philip Smith, 24, of Castleton, Vt., was instantly killed at 8 o'clock this morning when a Delaware and Hudson switching crane in operation near Gascoetown, was struck by a north-bound milk train and overturned upon him. Smith's skull was crushed and his left arm was torn from his body.

Music in the Air But Union Wants It to Be "Fair"

Local Musicians' Union Seeks Action on Firemen's Convention Committee of an "Unfair" List of Bands—Kohls Wants Lindy to Fly Here if Government Pays Flyer's Expenses.

"Fair" and "unfair" music came in for considerable discussion at the meeting of the general committee in charge of the annual convention of the Hudson Valley Volunteer Firemen's Association to be held here in June, when Francis Cashion of Union Hose Company, chairman of the music committee, reported at Monday's meeting at the Central Post Station that the local Musicians' Union had informed him that certain musical organizations were on the "unfair" list. A suggestion from William H. Kohls that it would be a good idea to endeavor to get "Lindy" to fly over the city for a few hours during the big parade if the government would pay "Lindy's" expenses was not acted on at the meeting.

Convention Here in June.

President Edward Moran of the general committee presided at the meeting Monday evening. It was stated that the convention dates were June 19, 20 and 21, and that the big firemen's parade would be held the afternoon of June 21, which would bring the convention to a close.

The parade committee submitted its report to the effect that the parade would start promptly at 2 o'clock on the afternoon of June 21, with Fire Chief Joseph L. Murphy as marshal. It would form at Hadrone's avenue and the Strand, and march up Broadway to Albany avenue, to Clinton avenue, to Main street, to Fair street, to North Front street, to Wall street, to Pearl street, to Clinton avenue, to Albany avenue, disbanding at Academy Green, opposite the Governor's Clinton.

K. of C. Hall Headquarters.

The committee on building reported that the convention would hold its sessions in the Knights of Columbus building at Broadway and Andrew street.

Music, Chit and Otherwise.

Francis Cashion of Union Hose, chairman of the committee on music said that there had been considerable talk on the streets about non-union music. He said that there was no opposition to the Excelsior Hose Band of the American Legion Drum Corps, but that Ferraro's Band and the J. O. U. A. M. Band had some differences with the musicians' union which it was expected would be adjusted.

Mr. Cashion read a communication from the musicians' union in which it was stated that the Excelsior Band and the Legion drum corps had been placed on the "fair" list for the parade only, but that the Mechanics' Band and the Ferraro Band were on the "unfair" list.

Murphy Wanted to Know.

Andrew J. Murphy of Cornell Hose wanted to know if any "fair" or "unfair" list of bands had been submitted to the general committee by the musicians' union. He was of the opinion that the musicians' union was taking unfair steps as "We are an innocent organization. We go and hire a band and then are informed it is on the 'unfair' list. I think the union ought to cooperate with us. It's not for this local committee to settle any differences that the musicians' union might have."

He suggested that if any fire company had a non-union band that it be removed and that the musicians' union replace it with a "fair" band and that the union pay any difference in the cost.

Kohls and Plough Speak.

William H. Kohls asked: "What is the musicians' union going to do about bands brought here by visiting fire companies?"

"All I got to say," said Jonah Plough, "is that this Malsenheider goes to West Point when he needs men and gets six or seven, and everyone knows that army men can't belong to any union. That's all I got to say."

Will Iron Out Differences.

After a lengthy discussion President Moran announced that the music committee expected to iron out any differences that may exist and that all would be serene on the day of the parade.

Wants Lindy Here.

W. H. Kohls, who is a director of the H. V. F. A., said that he would like to make a suggestion that "Lindy" be brought here to fly over the city a few hours during the day of the parade. He made it merely as a suggestion and thought it would be better in bringing a larger crowd to the city during the day.

He did not want any action taken on the convention but thought it would be a good idea to get "Lindy's" expenses. He suggested taking the matter up with Governor "Al" Smith and the members of the state legislature.

Mr. Kohls's suggestion was not acted upon.

Snyder's Resolution.

Nelson W. Snyder introduced a resolution that the plans of the outgoing committee take priority over the plans of any local fire company, and it led to an animated discussion by some of the general committee who

Music in the Air

Moran States Position.

The discussion led President Moran to come out and state his position.
He said that this convention was going to be absolutely on the level, and that was why he had appointed such good men to the various committees. He said that in some past conventions there had been cases where the day following the outfitting some fire companies had also been entertained by the caterer but that this was not going to be done this time.
He said that there had also been considerable street talk about bands being engaged for the convention but wanted it distinctly understood that no band had been engaged as yet.

"I will stand for no tricky business," said Mr. Moran, "and if I hear of any tricky business on the part of any member of any committee that member is through."

Reported Progress.

The various committees which called upon for reports all reported progress and it was decided to hold the next meeting on Tuesday evening, March 12, at which time fuller reports would be received.

Not on Weather Committee.

Andrew J. Murphy said that this year he was not going to serve on the weather committee. While it was true that firemen did not object to being wet both. His salary was greeted with laughter and applause.

Secretary Jacob C. Port read a communication from an out of town company that wanted to secure a band near Kingston for the day of the parade. He stated he had sent the names of two bands to the fire company. It was also brought out that so far about half a dozen companies had written that they would attend the parade, and it is expected that a large number of fire companies would take action on the matter at their March meetings.

The general committee than adjourned.

Missions of Mercy in Peace or War Await Red Cross Nursing RecruitsTHE RED CROSS NURSE IN WAR TIME CHEERS THE WOUNDED SOLDIER

TO enlist the young women of the nation in the cause of mercy, prepared to serve in time of the country's stress—in peace or war—is one of the purposes which has prompted the American Red Cross Nursing Service to call for the second annual observance of Jane A. Delano Nurses Recruiting Week, from March 5 to 12.

Only graduate trained nurses,
from accredited schools, may enroll in the Red Cross Nursing Service.
In honoring, nation-wide, the memory of Jane Delano—famous and distinguished head of the Red Cross Nurses prior to and during the World War, it is hoped also to direct the attention of girls graduating from high school and college to the nursing profession as a career offering wide possibilities of service.

Regulations of the U. S. Army designate the enrolled Red Cross nurses
as a reserve to the Army Nurses Corps, subject to call to duty in time of war. In addition the Red Cross nurses are called into service at times of great disaster, such as the Mississippi Valley flood of 1927, or in any other relief or humanitarian work conducted under the aus-

During the World War, more than 20,000 graduate nurses were sup-

Cross; many hundreds of these work under Red Cross commissions in foreign nations; and thousands gave great assistance in the crises of the several influenza epidemics in the United States.

"Marriage removes an average of 100 nurses from our civil roll each month," said Miss Clara D. Noyes, national director of American Red Cross nursing service, in discussing plans for Jane A. Delano Week.
"and death, illness and resignation cause us to lose another fifty each month. The nurse who marries or who passes the age limit of 45, may enroll for Home Defense work, but she is not eligible for the Army service. Although we have had an average enrollment of 46,000 since the beginning of enrollment twenty years ago, to maintain our standard we must enroll the young graduate nurses as they come from school.
"We are anxious also to have the girl, just leaving high school or college, who is thinking of a career, consider what fascination and interest—and even romance—lie in the also very sympathetic and helpful career of the nurse. Remuneration, whether in public work, or in private or hospital life, is comparable with that in other professions open to women."

Senior classes of virtually all nurses' training schools will participate in exercises March 12, the birth date of Miss Delano, in commemoration of her great service to nursing and of her heroic death in France, a sacrifice to war service, not long after the Armistice. Enrollment of graduate nurses is consummated through committees composed of Red Cross nurses on Red Cross nursing service in the various communities.

REPUBLICAN FARMERS
GIVE LOWDEN FIRST PLACE

Philadelphia, Pa., Feb. 28.—With President Coolidge out of the running, Republican farmer-voters are making former Governor Lowden of Illinois their presidential choice with Secretary Hoover a close second, according to a tabulation of 40,723 ballots cast to date in a straw-vote conducted exclusively among rural voters.

The balloting, conducted by The Farm Journal, which has named the presidential winner in advance since 1912 on the basis of similar surveys, shows Governor Smith far ahead of other Democratic presidential possibilities.

Despite his adamant refusal to run again, President Coolidge still is the farmer's choice, however, it is indicated. Two months after his unequivocal statement of December the incoming ballots keep him in first place.

The leading presidential choices, Democratic and Republican, according to the tabulation, are: Coolidge, 11,893 votes; Lowden, 6,262; Smith,
4,988; Hoover, 4,528; Borah, 1,820;
Senator Reed of Missouri, 1,733; Dawes, 1,606. Other candidates, none of whom approaches these first seven, divide 8,043 votes.

One of the most significant aspects of the straw vote is that showing Governor Smith's strength among Democratic farmers in widely scattered sections. In all normally Democratic states except Missouri, Virginia and Oklahoma, the New York governor leads Senator Reed and other Democrats by a wide margin.

"At the time the President, told the Republican National Committee in December that they must look for another candidate he had polled 46 per cent of the total Republican vote," says The Farm Journal in analyzing the tabulation. "In the last two months the President's share has been reduced to about 32 per cent, and it seems that Secretary Hoover and former Governor Lowden are dividing the remainder."

"Hoover had about 12½ per cent of the Republican vote up to December, but he has had 19 per cent since then. Governor Lowden had about 18 per cent in December and has had 24½ per cent since."

The Lowden strength, however, is concentrated in his seven leading states, the Middle Western agricultural group, which give him 72 per cent of his total vote, the analysis points out. "As compared with this figure, Secretary Hoover's first seven states give him only about 54 per cent of his total, and Governor Smith's only 53 per cent."

New Giants of the rails enter service on the 20th Century Limited

A new fleet of thoroughbreds of the rails
—the giant "Hudson" type locomotives—enters the Century service this winter.

These great six-driving-wheeled engines—the "5200's"—are the most powerful ever designed for the New York-Chicago service.

They are thoroughbred descendants of a long line of famous locomotives, from the time of the DeWitt Clinton—each marking a new advance in American engineering achievement.

Three sections of the "Century," with their new "5200" engines, waiting at Lafayette Street Station, Chicago, for the signal to start on the 20-hour run to New York.

Ulster Leads in Legion Quota

First in the State to Reach Mark Set by State Headquarters—Quota Was 775 and There are 783 on the Rolls.

Charles Parker of New Paltz, County Commander of the American Legion, called today on Conrad J. Gesselman, Commander of Kingston Post, and said he had just received a telephone call from State Headquarters of the Legion notifying him that Ulster county was the first county in New York state to reach its quota in membership. On February 15, Ulster stood at the top of the Legion membership list, leading all other counties by having slightly over 50 per cent of its quota, which was fixed by State Headquarters on the first of the year. Today Ulster is still leading with over 100 per cent of its quota. The quota for Ulster county is 775 members, and 783 paid up members have already been entered on the Legion rolls. And memberships will be coming in until the end of the Legion year in next October. This is the first time in the history of the Legion that Ulster county has achieved this victory. The Legion posts of the entire country are to be congratulated. The membership workers of Kingston Post have played an important part in this great work. These workers are still searching out world war veterans and explaining to them the advantages of belonging to the Legion—the outfit that has for its motto, "We serve in peace as in war." The members of Kingston Post are proud of this record and have pledged themselves to keep working at membership. Their motto is, "Ulster shall stay at the top."

Local Fans Heard England Today

The WGY rebroadcast from Chelmsford, England, at noon today was the best received experiment of this kind yet experienced by the local radio fans. Signals were strong and clear, there was little of the usual snapping noises and only occasional rhythmic fading, as though the wind were blowing the voices away. The Schenectady engineers carried on a conversation with the engineers of the British Marconi Company and the voices from across the Atlantic were heard almost as strong and clear as the voices of the men in Schenectady.

GOV. SMITH'S PET BILLS WILL NOT BECOME LAWS.

Albany, N. Y., Feb. 28 (AP).—Republicans of the Assembly in conference today decided against the entire Democratic administrative legislative program. About a dozen of Governor Smith's pet measures, recommended in his annual message to the Legislature, will probably die in committee as a result of the conference action.

Among those which will fall by the wayside are the four years' term for elective state officials with election in years midway between presidential elections, state development of waterpower, pre-election filing of expense statements, restoration of direct primaries for all state offices. The Republicans were in conference nearly an hour before the beginning of the day's session. It was decided that they would stand as a party against all motions by the minority to discharge committees from consideration of the Governor's proposals.

Mrs. Roosevelt Returns.

It was announced here today.

He served in the World War as a machine gun officer.

Flashes of Life
Sketched in Brief

(By The Associated Press.)

New York—Commodore Harold A. Cunningham considers his first trip in command of the Leviathan was lucky, even if the ship did go aground near Southampton. "I am back just in time for my birthday," he explained. "I don't have one every year. I was born February 29."

Washington—What do you mean "Lucky" Lindy? Senator Edge wishes Congress to authorize 13 stamps in honor of the good will flight.

Constantinople—It must be like ice cream. "Sweet waters of Europe" is frozen up for the first time in a century. It's a brook flowing into the Golden Horn.

New York—Wanted a war or so to increase the harmonica business. Dr. Will Hohner of Berlin says the demand for the output of his ancestral factories, founded in 1856, has been up and down with the activities of Mars. He's here to look over the situation in this hemisphere.

Vienna—A fellow with the same name as he who invented the steamboat has a device for home reception of radiocast pictures. Captain Oscar Patton is taking his apparatus to the United States. It has one tube and costs about $100.

New York—Executives of the police department are convinced there is something to the medieval trial by ordeal. Policeman Ferraro turned in a report of his thrilling rescue of a drowning man by a dive into icy water. There were doubts. So fellow policemen threw Ferraro into a swimming pool. They had to rescue him.

Watertown, Mass.—A big gun is on its way to guard the Panama Canal. It weighs 735,000 pounds and has a barrel 70 feet long. Three railroad cars left with it for the Brooklyn navy yard.

New York—The beautiful but dumb need not apply to Samuel Goldwyn, who is looking for movie talent. The sine qua non is screen personality—not doll-like perfection of face and form—intelligence and a sense of humor.

Houston—What! Clem Shaver, Democratic national chairman, admits he did not drive a team of mules well? Yes, sir! He was behind a plow that turned earth for the convention building, but he's afraid the furrow would not pass inspection by his West Virginia farmer friends.

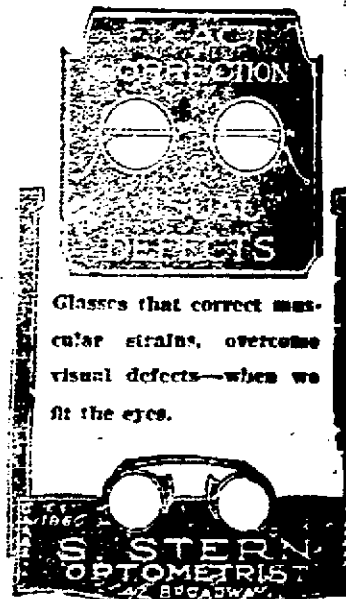

New York—The first commandment for women in politics is don't talk too much. That habit is the first sin of women in politics, says Worthington Scranton, vice-chairman of the Pennsylvania Republican state committee.

New York—"Why in such a hurry?" asked a magistrate of the smiling Dorothy Chapman, 19, of New Rochelle, who was ticketed by a traffic policeman on Sunday morning. "I wanted to beat mother to church," explained Dorothy. In such a case, the magistrate decided, he would impose only a nominal fine—$24. Dorothy paid without the smile coming off.

The Definition of a Sports Costume is a Timely Subject for Meditation and Debate—Formal Fashions Apparently Are Permissible.

Paris—When the spring openings began, everyone in Paris was convinced that sports clothes would provide the principal theme, and to date no one has been disappointed. Everything one wears is under the whole-some influence of the outdoor life.

Of course, not only such clothes are being shown as one would wear while actively participating in sports, for many clothes that are labeled "sports" are really rather elaborate. There is nothing simple in white satin skirts topped by chiffon jumpers over which a flight of white angora butterflies wing their way, soaring above sprays of apple blossoms or some such delicate bloom.

It seems to be largely a matter of silhouette, this something which lifts a costume into or out of the sports category, and, of course, material has something to do with it—although who can call chiffon and satin sports fabrics? Or moire? And moire is lavishly used in the Goupy.

Black Silk Crepe Is Used for a Frock with Effective Jabot Treatment and a Skirt That Introduces Soft Fullness at the Front in Tiered Arrangement. The Lower Sleeve in Flesh Tone Contrasts with the Flaring Cuff.

collection, which is more than half given over to the exploitation of sports clothes. For that matter, this designer uses moire for everything from the evening dress and wrap to the two-piece sports costume and simple straight-line coat.

Coats are simple, usually straight, and are being trimmed for spring with flat rather than long-haired fur. Several good-looking coats have tiny tucks or a discreet arrangement of gathers at the back of the neck. This provides some fullness, which is often essential to preserve the straight line. Coats are still clutched, rather than buttoned, but they are sometimes held in position by a decorative belt.

NEW CROCODILE FOUND AMONG OLD EXHIBITS

Chicago, Feb. 28 (G.P.).—A new species of crocodile, the first discovery of its kind since 1872, has been found by Karl P. Schmidt, assistant curator of reptiles and amphibians at the Field Museum of Natural History.

Schmidt was classifying and sorting a number of crocodile skulls which had rested in the store room of the museum's department of anthropology, when he noticed two with characteristics markedly different from those of any known crocodiles.

Research among reports of zoologists of all countries revealed no previous reports of this type, and confirmed Schmidt's conclusions that it was new to the scientific world.

The collection of skulls was obtained in an expedition to New Guinea in 1908. They had been used as charms and ceremonial objects by the natives.

The last previous addition to the list of crocodile species was made in 1872 by Gerard Krefft, Austrian zoologist.

The new species is a moderate-sized fresh-water form, about ten feet long, related to the much larger salt-water crocodile of the East Indies, a much-feared man-eating type.

WHEAT FARMER SAYS

BUSINESS MEN WORK HARDEST

Chicago, Feb. 28.—Do business men work harder than the average American farmer?

Testifying at a grain rate hearing before the interstate commerce commission recently, T. F. Hopkins, liberal, Kans., owner of a 2,000-acre wheat farm, declared that if the average farmer worked as hard as the business man, bad times on the farm would disappear. He said there was too much "riding around the country-side three-quarters of the day."

He was invited to testify because the commission learned his methods had been consistently profitable.

"We have some good farmers and lots of poor ones," he said. "Every farmer who sticks to business makes a go of it and a fair profit. Most of the failures purchase motor cars on installment before their crops are harvested. They go riding instead of working."

"Laziness, shiftlessness and improvidence go with failure. Modern farmers have revolutionized their mode of living. Many of them live in town and drive to their farms, necessitating miles of travel."

Members of the commission have taken testimony at various cities, including Minneapolis, Kansas City, Chicago and Washington. All phases of the grain trade have been discussed with a view to determining facts bearing upon the whole subject of grain rates.

During the sessions many witnesses have stressed the economic value of the present system of marketing grain, some of them pointing to the low toll which exists between producer and consumer as compared with the toll involved in the marketing of other farm products. It was declared that the grain futures market constituted a balance wheel of high value to both the producer and the consumer.

FILM SPEEDS 3 MILES MINUTE

Camera Slows Down Machinery to One Two-Hundredth of Speed.

Detroit.—Feeding movie film through a camera at the rate of three miles a minute to slow down rapidly moving machinery to about one two-hundredth of its normal speed is the feat accomplished by C. Francis Jenkins of Washington. At the meeting of the Society of Automotive Engineers here Mr. Jenkins told of the "chronotape camera," one of his latest inventions, and how it may be applied to the study of automobile engines.

Instead of the 16 pictures a second, taken by the ordinary movie camera, or the 125 taken by the "ultra-rapid" camera, now frequently used in filming athletic events, the chronotape takes 3,200 pictures a second at its normal rate. If desired, it can be speeded up even further, and take as many as 10,000 a second. When these are projected in the ordinary machine at the speed of 16 a second, the apparent speed of the motion is correspondingly reduced. When taken at 3,200 per second, the reduction of speed is 200 times, and at the higher speeds it is of course greater.

Uses New System.

In the usual type of motion-picture camera, the film is stopped for each exposure, so that it stops and starts 16 times a second. At such high speeds as those employed in the chronotape camera this is impossible, for the film would be torn to pieces.

A further difficulty is introduced, because with a single lens extremely short exposures would have to be made. Otherwise the picture would be blurred, just as if the object itself were close to the camera and moving at such a high speed. Mr. Jenkins has avoided this difficulty by providing 48 lenses, set in the periphery of a 13-inch disk, which turns at a speed of 4,000 revolutions per minute. The film moves back of this disk, so that the image formed by the lenses moves right along with the film. In fact, the exposures overlap, as the exposure is begun through one lens before that through the preceding lens is completed. At 3,200 exposures a second, each one is about one twenty-five hundredth of a second in length. With the rapid lenses used, and sensitive film, this is really sufficient for a full-sized negative in bright sunlight. In the ordinary movie camera, at 16 a second, each exposure is about one thirty-second of a second in duration.

Has Photographic Quality.

Mr. Jenkins calls attention to the good photographic quality in the pictures, which is unusual in such high-speed studies. "The pictures are true photographic pictures having half-tone values like other motion pictures, not mere shadowy outlines of grayish silhouettes," he says. "They are made out of Coors as well as in the laboratory, of large subjects or small subjects, and from a moving vehicle as readily as from a fixed platform."

The chronotape camera is an instrument for the study of many problems in science and engineering, some of which are not possible of accurate determination in any other way. Some additional applications of this instrument which immediately suggest themselves are a study of gun recoil, shell trajectories and plate impacts, airplane propellers and landing-gear action, bursting of balloons and air hose, tire action over obstructions, water streams, propagation of flame, engine valve rebound at high speed, cam-shaft jumping, crankshaft whip, transformer explosions and circuit-breaker arcs; shuttle thread knots and bobbin action, brakeshoe and draft gear application; in fact, anything that moves too fast for the eye to follow can be shown slowed down and can be examined in detail at leisure and repeatedly."

White House Drops

Last Horse Carriage

Washington.—Progress finally has claimed the last of the White House horse-drawn cabs. The coach, which once upon a time conveyed distinguished visitors of the President and more recently used by Miss Riley and other White House housekeepers, has been ordered to the army stables along with the faithful horse which hauled the cab around the city on buying expeditions. In their place is a new model automobile.

Tom, the old negro coachman who ceremoniously guided the cab as he took Miss Riley from market to store, has laid away his high silk hat to engage in other duties.

Proper to Kill Witch,

Court Rules, Freeing 4

Szegedin, Hungary.—Four men recently owed their freedom to a belief in witches. The men had a sick friend who told them that his illness was due to visits of a beggar woman who cast an evil spell over him. As the invalid told his tale the old woman entered the room begging for alms. She was unable to answer questions put by the four. They accepted the story she was a witch and backed her to pieces. They were accused of murder. The Superior court reversed their conviction, saying attendant circumstances pointed to the presence of a witch.

SHANDAKEN.

Shandaken, Feb. 27.—The Ladies' Aid Society of the M. E. Church gave a banquet to their husbands on Friday evening, February 24, at the home of Mr. and Mrs. P. S. Osterhoudt. There were seventy-eight people present. The house was crowded and everyone enjoyed it immensely. The following was the menu: Turkey, mashed potatoes, turnips, peas, cabbage salad, celery, cranberry sauce, jelly, ice cream and cake. Many thanks are due Mr. and Mrs. Osterhoudt for their kind hospitality.

Mrs. Ella Coons, who has been spending the winter in Kingston, is visiting her son, W. D. Coons.

Mr. and Mrs. Jay Humphrey of Kingston attended the banquet on Friday evening, given by the Ladies' Aid Society.

Master Leo Townsend of Kingston has been visiting his grandfather, R. Livingston, a few days.

Miss Marjorie Oliver and friends of Kingston were guests of Miss Phyllis Osterhoudt on Sunday.

The mid-week prayer service on Wednesday last at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Terry was well attended. There were 32 present. This week the service will be held at the home of Mr. and Mrs. George Rosa.

Coons & Van Keuren, butchers, have dissolved partnership. R. Van Keuren has gone in business for himself.

Time Measure in Music

There is no difference between common time and four-four time. Common time is the old name. Four-four is a more specific way of expressing the same thing. We have so many species of time in modern music and four-four is more in keeping with the other forms.

SUMMER FARM HELP AVAILABLE FROM SCHOOL.

Director H. B. Knapp of the State Institute of Applied Agriculture at Farmingdale, L. I., announces that thirty-five students from that institution are available for places on farms April 15th to September 25th. These students vary in age from thirteen to twenty-four years, the average age being eighteen to twenty, and all have had farm experience. Some desire places on poultry and fruit farms, others on general dairy and truck farms.
The Institute wishes to place these students in good homes with successful farmers who will take an interest in them, and where they will have an opportunity for a variety of work, and to learn right methods and practices. Students will expect prevailing wages in the community for men of their farm experience and ability.
Farmers in the past have been well satisfied with help sent out from the Institute, and some men depend each year on labor for the growing season from this source. Applications should be made direct to the Institute at once, since students are already being placed.

Chicago Grain Market.
Chicago, Feb. 28 (AP).—(Closing prices) Wheat, March $1.33 1/2; Corn, March, 24 1/2c; May, 28c; Oats, March, 55 1/2c; May, 56 1/2c.

Financial and Commercial

New York, Feb. 28 (AP).—Unsettled price movements characterized today's stock market. Standard Industrials and rails moved within a rather narrow range while bullish demonstrations in a selected assortment of common stocks, public utilities and merchandise issues were offset by the weakness of a few favorites.
There was little activity in the bond market, but the price of government bonds advanced slightly on the news of a better demand for some of the old issues. Call money was slightly firmer on approach of the month-end, although there appeared to be a plentiful supply of funds available at the Federal Reserve Bank. Banks called about $10,000,000 in loans during the morning.
Recent sluggishness of U. S. Steel has been attributed in some quarters to the liquidation of a large long account, but reports that financial interests were selling stock to pay for the Bank of America, purchased by them, were officially denied. General Motors held fairly steady but met stock on the railroads.
Havay Cigars jumped nearly six points to a new high record at 135 and Case Threshing and the American Tobacco issues advanced 4 to 5 points. General Electric and Electric A and B stocks each moved up about 2 points to new peak prices for the year.
On the other hand, National Distillers common broke six points to a new low at 35 and the preferred dropped 5 to a new low at 55. Christie Brown and Standard Flat Glass preferred also broke more than 4 points each.

We Are Great Apple Eaters

Albany, N. Y., Feb. 28 (AP).—Farmers of the Hudson Valley section of New York state use more apples than those in the western section, according to a survey by the New York State Department of Agriculture and Markets.
The principal apple growing regions of the state are five counties in Western New York and seven counties along the Hudson river. Three out of every 100 apples grown along the Hudson river are used on the farms where they are grown. The survey shows while in the western counties, only one apple out of 100 is used by the farmers.
The Hudson Valley counties harvest 55 per cent of their apple crop while the western counties harvest only 33.6 per cent. On the other hand, the Hudson Valley counties sell only 87.8 per cent of the crop, as compared with 88.6 per cent sold by farmers of the western counties.
The difference is accounted for by the fact that Hudson Valley farmers use more apples at home, allow more to rot, and discard more culls than those in the western counties.
The southern section of the state ships 20.9 per cent of its crop by rail; 17.5 per cent by boat, and 22.3 per cent by truck, while from the western counties, 41.8 per cent is shipped by rail, and only 2.2 per cent by boat and 7.5 per cent by truck.

OF COLGATES OLD BELL.

Hamilton, N. Y., Feb. 28 (AP).—The old bell which summoned Colgate university students of former years to classes has been returned to the campus here after an absence of several years.

Its return was as mysterious as its disappearance from the chapel. The bell, which once hung in West Hall, the chapel and part of the rigging were found on the chapel platform a few mornings ago. The bell and clapper were heavily coated with rust. Whether some town scamp, grown respectable or some undergraduate whose fraternity had cherished the relic restored it, remains a secret.

Strike Clouds Threaten I. R. T.

New York, Feb. 28 (AP).—Clouds threatening a strike by some of the employees of the Interborough Rapid Transit Company darkened New York's turbulent transit situation today.

Patrick J. Connolly, president of the Interborough Rapid Transit Company's Brotherhood, the so-called "company union," said that if the company reinstates 15 men discharged because of affiliation with an American Federation of Labor unit, the brotherhood will require the action as cause for a strike in its own part.

Not more than 100 I. R. T. employees, Connolly said, are members of the amalgamated, and the intention of the brotherhood is to see that these are weeded out of the company's employ.

Connolly's statement followed a meeting yesterday by officials of the Amalgamated Association of Street and Electric Railway Employees, a F. of L. group, in which the union's aid of Mayor Walker and Justice Wasservogel of the Supreme court to prevent a "striking lockout" of unamalgamated employees. Still talk was heard in connection with possible moves by the amalgamated to hold its men at work.

Von Elm Will Not Turn Pro

GEORGE VON ELM, former national amateur golf champion, decided today that he would sign under the management of Jack Kearns, but would not turn professional. Von Elm insisted he would never consider accepting the money for the professional.

While Kearns insisted the star player was considering turning professional, Von Elm declared the suggestion had been made only as a "bit of fun" and that he would not for a moment think of making such a change. He said he had been previously told that if he were to turn professional, he would be made out of the professional golf of it were given the proper bid.

Kearns brought the name of Al Watson, Grand Rapids, professional, into the proposition as a possible partner for Von Elm.

Tom Kretschmer also came forward with the offer of Von Elm's first professional appearance after winning up his amateur career in the Long Beach open tournament. It was declared arrangements for the 1928 season of the professional tour already had been started.

Earlier Von Elm had been reported as confirming his acceptance of Kearns' proposition, and a close business associate of Kearns insisted the agreement had been entered into. In the face of the golfer's denials it was declared Von Elm desired to withhold any announcement temporarily, but he also denied that such an agreement was true.

Von Elm insisted golf was but an honored pastime with him and that, joined with his private business, would prevent him in spite of any "million dollar" offer from going into professional golf.

In and Out the Training Camps

NEW YORK, Feb. 28 (AP).—The New York Giants have made their final stand for this year at Hot Springs, Ark., by playing a final all-star game today. The training camp moved today to Augusta, Ga.

The Giants collected two more shift squads yesterday out of the battery and another odd lot of players. Manager McGraw wired a couple. One side took the name "Cold Waters," with Fitzsimmons on the mound. Before the game ended he was pitching for the opposition, known as the "Hot Waters." Art Johnson, a left-hander, made the season's first home run.

Fitcher Walter Hoyt, the Yankee pitcher, failed to come to terms in negotiations between Hot Springs and Business Manager Ed Barrow of New York. Hoyt said he would stop another week at Hot Springs and then return to New York.

Florida rains impeded the workouts of the Yankees and Braves at St. Petersburg and Clearwater respectively. Twenty-three players turned out for practice at the Yankees' camp before the downpour of rain. Babe Ruth disappointed many of his admirers by playing golf instead of donning a uniform.

Dizzy Vance appeared in playing togs with the Braves at Clearwater, although he has not signed his 1928 contract. Bill Doak, the veteran spitball hurler, received quite a bit of attention on his arrival at the Brooklyn quarters.

Chicago, Feb. 28 (AP).—The first squad of the Chicago White Sox, including the high priced rookie, Charles (Bill) Cissell, gathered today under the managerial chaperonage of Ray Schalk for the trip to the Shreveport, La., training camp. Battermen, a few infielders and club officials comprised the party which will be joined at Shreveport tomorrow by others under contract, excepting only a few veterans who have been ordered to report later.

Manager Schalk registered approval of his new shortstop candidate, Cissell, who lightened the Sox bank roll by $123,000.

"He's my idea of just the right physical type for the job," said Schalk.

CHICHESTER QUINTETS BEAT KINGSTON TEAMS.

The Congregational quintet of Kingston lost to the Chichester team in the Chichester Social Hall, Saturday evening, 49-23. In a preliminary tilt the Lady Five, girls' team of Chichester, defeated the Kingston feminine quintet, 28-1.

The Congregationals were somewhat handicapped by the use of professional rules. The Chichester team took the lead early in the first half, which ended in their favor, 25-12. Zimmerman of Chichester, which had the services of Harold Johnson of this city, scored 19 points. Johnson registered 12. Cassell did the best scoring for the Congregationals with 11 markers.

Friday night, March 2, the Wilbur team and the girls' five of that place will meet the Chichester teams at Social Hall. There will be dancing after the games.

Merely a Belief

The public health service says that the popular idea that a drowning person rises to the surface three times is apparently incorrect. Some persons never come to the surface at all while some struggle to the surface many times.

RED SHIELDS EVENED SERIES WITH FLEISCHMANN'S.

The Red Shields evened their standing with the Fleischmann's quintet at the Salvation Hall, North Front street, Monday night when they registered a win over the mountaineer community team by a 53-22 tally. The third and deciding game of the teams' series will probably be played in the near future. Len Joyce was the scoring ace of the game and added 17 markers to the Red Shields' total. Hyatt and Merritt of the same aggregation corralled 15 and 13 markers respectively. The highest scorer of the Fleischmann's team was Faulkner with 12 points.

BASQUE WOODCHOPPER'S BOUT WITH GEORGE GODFREY

Los Angeles, Feb. 28 (AP).—Paulino Uzcudun, Basque woodchopper, tonight will attempt to conquer George Godfrey, biggest of heavyweight pugilistic timber, as a step in clearing the trial leading to a championship duel with Gene Tunney.

Uzcudun will concede to his giant negro foe nearly 40 pounds in weight, several inches in height and some more in reach in the ten round battle at Wrigley Field here. But such disadvantages failed to shadow the confidence of the squatty Basque. He feels certain that his slashing two fisted attack, backed by a strong fighting heart and the ability to simulate heavy punches will carry him to victory.

Sporting Squibs

Southern California will be captained next year by Jesse Hibbs, giant tackle.

Horses owned by H. P. Whitney won 75 races during the racing season of 1927.

The game of golf is played by more people than any other sport in the United States.

The only thing needed to clear the heavyweight situation is a draw between Heeney and Delaney.

Bucky Harris, of the Senators, is likely to be the only playing manager in the big leagues this year.

Indiana and Illinois are liable to play two football games in one day against each other next fall.

Suzanne Lenglen's latest hobby is collecting stamps, with special attention being paid to airmail stamps.

Buster Shimek, captain of the Marquette track team last year, plans to run for the Illinois Athletic club this year.

Hyatt, Pittsburgh sophomore, is being hailed as the best point-making forward in Eastern basket ball circles this year.

Officials of the American Basket Ball league have decided that the home team must have a doctor on the bench at all times.

According to Gene Tunney, heavyweight champion of the world, he will not retire from the ring until knocked unconscious.

The St. Louis Browns announced the sale of Chester Falk, left-handed pitcher, to Montreal, of the International league.

Paul Kortenbach has retired and opened a billiard room, a traffic in ivory that one would associate with baseball, not boxing.

The heavyweight champions since John L. Sullivan have been Corbett, Fitzsimmons, Jeffries, Burns, Johnson, Willard, Dempsey and Tunney.

Michigan will open its 1928 baseball season by playing the University of Cincinnati at Cincinnati, April 7. Twenty-seven games have been booked.

Benny Friedmann, former Michigan all-American, impressed critics on the Pacific coast very forcibly by his work in pro games against Red Grange and George Wilson.

Everett Scott, former major league shortstop, who holds an American league record for having played in 1,307 consecutive games, has signed with the Reading Internationals.

Stanislav Zhysko, veteran wrestler, has made $1,000,000 out of the mat game and last year paid the largest income tax of any athlete in the country. He has wrestled in every country where the sport is known.

Henry Klein of Baltimore, one of the best basket ball officials in the East, holds the record in Maryland for consecutive shots from the foul line. While playing for the Markham club he scored 20 out of 21 tries.

Harry S. German, fifty-four, former hurler for the Toledo baseball club and veteran of 28 baseball seasons, was honored by fellow townsmen at his home in Northville, a Detroit suburb. Through Gov. Fred Green he was presented with a medal for having played ball there 20 years and training potential Northville diamond stars. German began his professional career with Toledo in 1907.

Kid McCoy Falls Heir to Choice Prison Job

Kid McCoy (Norman Selby), once famous boxer, now has the most cherished convict's job in San Quentin prison. The "promotion" of the slayer of Mrs. Theresa Mors came as a result of the parole of Thomas Ryan, former head of the Sacramento traffic squad. McCoy fell heir to his job as prison fireman. Heretofore he has been a clerk in the commissary department.

McCoy, by virtue of his new position, will not be locked in a cell. He will sleep in a regular bed in a room in the basement of the administration building. His duties will include taking care of the oil burners in that building, assuming charge of fire hydrants and fire extinguishers on the prison grounds and inspecting the equipment frequently.

McCoy will not have to eat his meals with the "main line." Food will be brought to him by another prisoner and he will dine alone.

Tunney Plays Golf

The photo shows Gene Tunney, heavyweight champion of the world, keeping in good physical shape, in preparation for his next bout, by playing golf on the La Gorce course at Miami Beach, Fla.

Jing Johnson Expects to Pitch for Athletics

That Russell (Jing) Johnson expects to be with the Philadelphia Athletics again this year, although he has not definitely announced that he has received a contract from the big league club, became evident when in a letter to the board of athletic control he intimated that he would not be available to coach the Lehigh baseball team next spring.

Johnson coached baseball at Lehigh for two seasons. He started on a one-year agreement and then was given a three-year contract. He served one year of the latter and it is believed that there will be no difficulties experienced if he seeks release. It is probable that the new football coach to be appointed will also be the coach of baseball.

Hurler Jack Ogden Goes to St. Louis in a Trade

Trade of Jack Ogden, veteran pitching star of the Baltimore Orioles, for two St. Louis Browns players and a cash consideration was announced by Jack Dunn, Oriole president and manager.

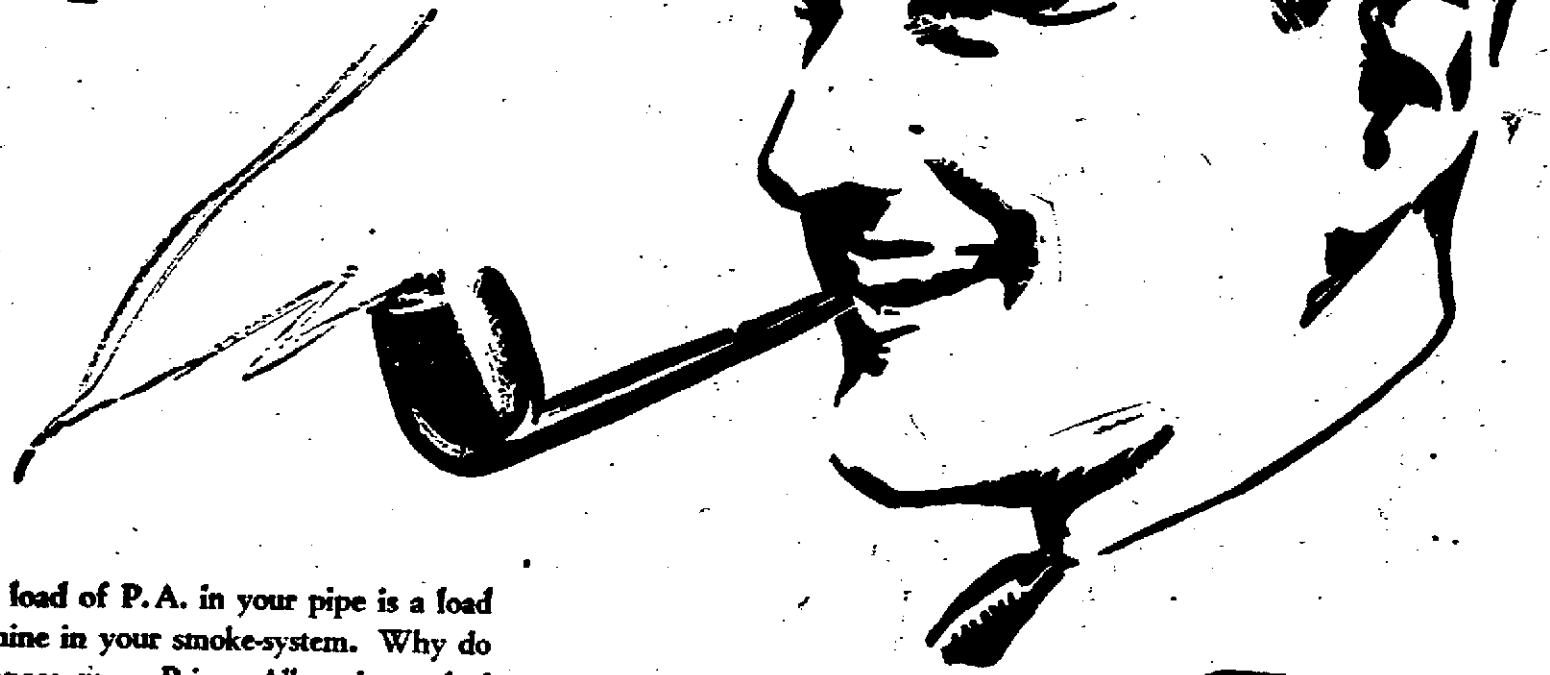

Catcher Dixon and Pitcher Boien went to the Orioles from the American league club in exchange, but the amount of cash involved in the deal was not made known.

In eight years with the Orioles, Ogden has won 121 games and lost 80, beside earning a reputation as a fielding pitcher and valued aide to the manager in suggesting strategic moves during games when he was not on the mound.

Contentment by the pipe-load

EVERY load of P.A. in your pipe is a load of sunshine in your smoke-system. Why do you suppose more Prince Albert is smoked than any other brand? I'll tell you. When you open a tidy red tin and set free that P.A. aroma, you're on your way.

When you taste that first, wonderful pull on your pipe, you've arrived. Cool as the keel of a river-boat. Refreshing as a breeze on the top deck. Mellow and mild and long-burning, with a body that puts satisfaction right over the plate every time.

Take the nearest path to pipe-joy. Go get yourself a tidy red tin of good old P.A. That's all there is to this business of finding the right combination to contentment. You'll say so after that first fragrant pipe-load of this delightful tobacco.

"GREAT STEP FORWARD". SAYS PREMIER BELAND.

Paris, Feb. 28 (AP).—Foreign Minister Briand today described Secretary Kellogg's latest note on outlawing war as a "great step forward" after a cabinet meeting at which the note was discussed.

The note is understood to be extremely friendly in tone and probably will be made public simultaneously in Paris and Washington tomorrow.

The summary of the note which Ambassador Claudel called to Paris indicated, however, that France and the United States still differ on a characterization of war to be outlawed and the method of procedure.

Washington, it is felt in French circles, has not seized the import of the French argument to the effect that a pact which might be possible between two powers to outlaw without qualification, becomes exceedingly difficult when an effort is made to make it general.

Secretary of State Kellogg, on the basis of Ambassador Claudel's summary, still clings to the idea of negotiating a pact with the principal powers. This extension of negotiations is not likely to find much opposition in France, but it is declared that the negotiations will be long and laborious if an attempt is made to draft a text outlawing war without definitions and precise characterization.

BRITISH AIRMEN PLAN NEW TRY FOR SPEED MARK.

Southampton, England, Feb. 28 (AP).—British aviators will attempt to create a new world airplane speed record at Calshot Seaplane Base early in March.

The machine to be used will be a Supermarine Napier S. 5, like that which Flight Lieut. S. N. Webster won the Schneider Trophy for Britain last year, with a speed of 281.45 miles an hour on the 100 kilometers course.

Flight Lieutenant S. M. Kinkaid will be the pilot. He was a member of the Schneider Cup team sent to Italy.

The present record, made shortly after the Schneider Cup races by Major de Bernardi, an Italian, is 296.94 miles an hour.

The course for the short speed record attempt at Calshot is five kilometers long.

Flight Lieutenant O. E. Worsley, who was second in the Schneider Cup race, and, flying a Supermarine Napier, was the only other competitor to finish the course, will be in reserve for the speed record attempt in March, according to present plans.

LITHUANIAN REPLY ON THE WAY TO POLAND.

Warsaw, Feb. 28 (AP).—A reply from Lithuania to the last Polish note proposing beginning of negotiations to resume diplomatic relations between the two countries, is en route to Warsaw by special courier.

The Lithuanian reply was delivered to the Polish legation in Riga yesterday and was immediately forwarded to the Polish Capital.

Efforts to restore normal relations between Poland and Lithuania have been in progress since the December meeting of the council of the League of Nations which patched up a temporary working agreement between the two countries.

The technical "state of war" between Poland and Lithuania was dissolved after this meeting, but efforts to get the two parties together to resume diplomatic negotiations proceeded slowly.

TIN HATS OF WAR DAYS SAFEGUARD MINERS

Miami, Okla., Feb. 28 (AP).—A demonstration did not end the usefulness of the doughboy's "tin hat."

It is being used in the Oklahoma-Kansas-Missouri zinc and lead mines to save workmen's lives.

Hundreds of the steel army helmets have been inducted into peace-time service to protect miners from falling rocks, and many lives have been saved according to mine safety engineers.

Workmen who must stand directly under ascending ore buckets are exposed daily to danger from falling rocks. Recently a bit of ore weighing several pounds fell 80 feet from a bucket, striking an operator directly on top of his steel hat. The man was floored, but not seriously injured.

Mrs. Baldinger in Hospital.

Mrs. Fred Baldinger, who disappeared from her home near Spillway Sunday afternoon and for whom a search was made Sunday afternoon and night by State Troopers and men from the sheriff's office, was brought to Kingston Monday after she had returned to her home and was taken to the Benedictine Hospital where she was treated by Dr. Harold Van Norstrand.

Mrs. Baldinger was in a highly nervous state and also suffered from exposure. It is presumed she spent the night in some shelter in the woods while the searching parties were looking for her.

Non Union Miners Seized and Beaten

Steubenville, Ohio, Feb. 28 (AP).—Six non-union miners and three guards at the Glen Robbin mine of the Youghiogheny and Ohio Coal Company were severely beaten by union sympathizers who stormed the mine in an effort to keep fifty non-union workers from going into the property early today.

Three houses, occupied by non-union workers of the mine, were wrecked, and several windows were broken by the rioters who hurled sticks and stones at the non-union men.

Seven alleged union sympathizers were arrested and taken to Columbus by Deputy United States marshals who were in charge of the guard at the mine. Several months ago the mine obtained an injunction from Federal Judge Hough at Columbus to protect it from alleged depredations at the hands of the strikers.

Last night a large body of men and women approached the mine supposedly in an effort to prevent non-union workers from entering the property. After milling about the property for a time, they were dispersed by deputy sheriffs from Steubenville who exploded tear bombs.

On their return this morning, the crowd became surly and began attacking the company property, wrecking the three houses and breaking a number of windows in others.

The injured guards were taken to a hospital at Martins Ferry.

SEASHORE ROAD PETERS AROUSE IRE OF NAHANT.

Nahant, Mass., Feb. 28 (AP).—Ancient Nahant, whose dreamy beaches and water-swept rocks have made the town a bit of paradise, may take steps to bar petting in automobiles after 10 o'clock nights.

The miles of roads giving ocean views are been cluttered up overmuch with parked petters evenings, think the town fathers. So the voters will be asked to vote on a ban on automobile petting after 10 o'clock at night.

There is nothing, however, in the proposed ordinance against petting on the beach sands.

Some significance was attached locally to the fact that the day of the town meeting at which the voters will be asked to drive petters out of Nahant is March 17, the holiday of St. Patrick, who drove the snakes out of Ireland.

CITY, SUED, DISCLAIMS RACCOON THAT BIT WOMAN.

Miami, Okla., Feb. 28 (AP).—The identity of a raccoon will be the principal issue in a $25,000 damage suit against the city set for trial in March.

The litigation was brought by Mrs. Bonnie Brazzile of Picher, Okla., who claims she was knocked down and bitten by a raccoon which escaped from the Riverview park menagerie when the park was flooded by the swollen Neosho river last spring.

The city denies it was a zoo coon that went on the rampage, insisting it probably was a wild animal caught in the flood. Several "experts" have been summoned to testify to the identity of the marauder.
